Summary

Shares of Choice Hotels have outperformed the industry in the past year. The outperformance is primarily attributed to solid progress on its flagship Comfort brand, renovated hotels that are capturing more business travel on strong developer demand and rapid growth in upscale Cambria brand across the country. Also, continuous enhancement of mid-scale brand and the acquisition of WoodSpring brand added to the upside. Nonetheless, the company is on the verge of opening 50 hotels in top-tier markets. However, high cost of operations and intense competition are posing concerns. Also, estimates have been trending downward over the past 30 days, reflecting concern regarding the stock's growth potential.

Reasons To Buy:

▲ Strong Brand Recognition & Impressive Earnings Trend: Choice Hotels' riveting growth potential depends on the continual expansion of its brands. In fact, the company's portfolio of well-segmented brands is getting evidently stronger. With continuous enhancement of the mid-scale brand and the acquisition of the WoodSpring brand as well as transformation and advancement of the Comfort and Cambria brands, Choice Hotels is poised for growth in 2019 and beyond. Notably, its earnings also met/surpassed analysts' expectations for 14 straight quarters. For 2019, Choice Hotels expects earnings per share between $4.21 and $4.27, up from prior expectation of $4.16-$4.22.

Continual expansion strategies through acquisitions and franchise agreements are major positives. The company's regular return of wealth to its shareholders is also commendable.

▲ Franchise Business Lends Economies of Scale: The company's 99% of revenues are generated from the franchise business. Choice Hotels gains from economies of scale associated with the franchise business. Accordingly, higher fee from franchisees and transference of cost burden onto franchisees provide the company with operational advantages. Apart from royalty fees and procurement services revenues, Choice Hotels also collect marketing and reservation system fees to provide support activities for the franchise system. Franchising, as we believe, will facilitate ROE expansion and earnings growth over the long term. Meanwhile, the company's solid commitment toward franchisee profitability is driving incremental revenues. The number of domestic franchised hotels and rooms as of Dec 31, 2018, increased 6.6% and 9%, respectively, from the year-ago levels.

▲ Continual Expansion Bodes Well: Choice Hotels relies heavily on expansion in both domestic as well as international markets. In the third quarter, the hotelier awarded 100 total franchise agreements. Alongside domestic growth, the company continues to expand its international footprint in new countries. Key international operating markets include Spain, Colombia, Panama, the Caribbean and Canada. Moreover, the company recently strengthened its mid-scale presence with the launch of Clarion Pointe. Expansion of the brand is expected to occur through 21 Clarion Pointe franchise agreements. Meanwhile, in the last year, the company announced an alliance with Sercotel, a leading hotel operator and franchisor based in Spain. This alliance will enable the extension of Choice Hotels' global footprint in Spain and other markets, as well as the creation of opportunities for additional hotel development across Europe and Latin America.

The Cambria brand has been doing solid business. In the first nine months of 2019, Cambria's RevPAR increased 0.4%. The company stated that in third-quarter 2019, Cambria's business travel revenues increased 17% year over year. Moreover, in the third quarter, the Cambria pipeline expanded to 79 hotels. 2019 is turning out to be an exceptional one for Cambria and the brand is on the verge of opening 50 hotels in top-tier markets.

▲ Woodspring Acquisition Adds Value: Apart from constant franchise expansions, Choice Hotels has added 239 extended-stay hotels in 35 states to its portfolio through the acquisition of Woodspring Suites in the past year. In 2018, the company completed opening of additional 12 WoodSpring hotels in top markets like Chicago, Seattle, Charlotte and Detroit. Further, growth is expected to accelerate in 2019, with expected opening of additional 20 hotels. Currently, Choice Hotels has 250 Woodspring hotels. By the end of 2020, it expects to see Woodspring operating 300 hotels. Additionally, in January, the company finalized an agreement with a developer to build more than 27 additional WoodSpring Suites over the next four years.

In the first quarter of 2019, Choice Hotels entered a multi-unit franchise agreement with a hotel management company to develop 14 WoodSpring hotels throughout the Western states of Colorado, Arizona and Nevada. Addition of Woodspring brand has been of vital importance. Since addition, WoodSpring's website revenue delivery has increased 24%, its call center conversion rates moved up 5.5% and corporate account business delivery increased 18%.

▲ Returning Shareholder's Wealth: Choice Hotels maintains a capital structure with high financial returns. The company has a historical record of returning value to its shareholders through share repurchases and dividends. In the first nine months of 2019, Choice Hotels paid cash dividends of $36 million. Based on the current quarterly dividend rate of 21.5 cents per share, the company expects to payout dividends worth approximately $48 million in 2019. Meanwhile, management repurchased roughly $0.6 million shares for nearly $45 million under the share repurchase program during the said period. As of Sep 30, 2019, it authorized up to 4-million additional shares of common stock under the share repurchase program.

Reasons To Sell:

- ▼ High Costs Hurt: Despite the positive synergies to be realized from acquisitions and focus on franchising, Choice Hotels is shouldering high costs from operations. Total operating expenses in 2018 increased 20.1% year over year. Total operating expenses in the first nine months of 2019 increased 10% to $581.8 million.
  - ▼ Cutthroat Competition: The hotel industry is highly competitive, as major hospitality chains with well-established and recognized brands are continuously expanding their global presence. Choice Hotels is continuously facing intense competition from both large hotel chains and smaller independent local hospitality providers. Increasingly, the company also faces competition from new channels of distribution in the travel industry. Additional sources of competition include large companies that offer online travel services as part of their business model such as Alibaba, search engines such as Google, and peer-to-peer inventory sources such as Airbnb and HomeAway that allow travelers to book stays on websites that facilitate the short-term rental homes and apartments from owners, thereby providing an alternative to hotel rooms. Unless the company counters these competitions with appropriate strategies, it may pose a concern for its future profitability.
  - ▼ Cyclical Nature of the Industry Poses Concern: The hospitality industry is cyclical, and a worsening of global economic conditions might in turn dent Choice Hotels' revenues and profits. Consumer demand for services is closely linked to performance of the general economy, and is sensitive to business and personal discretionary spending levels. Decline in consumer demand due to adverse general economic conditions, poor travel patterns, lower consumer confidence and high unemployment can lower revenues as well as the profitability of the company. These factors can also reduce its management and franchise fee revenues.
  - ▼ Valuation Looks Stretched: Looking at Choice Hotels' valuation, we find it stretched compared with its own range as well as the industry average. Looking at the company's EV/EBITDA ratio (Enterprise Value/ Earnings before Interest Tax Depreciation and Amortization), which is the best multiple for valuing gaming companies as those are highly capital intensive, investors might not want to pay any further premium. The stock has a trailing 12-month EV/EBITDA ratio of 20.25. On the contrary, the trailing 12-month EV/EBITDA ratio for the industry and the S&P 500 is 15.37 and 11.95, respectively.

High cost of operations and intense competition are concerns.
