Summary

ManpowerGroup has witnessed solid growth at its solutions business, especially in Managed Service Provider (MSP) and Recruitment Process Outsourcing (RPO) solutions, through 2019. Notably, RPO and MSP have been the highest margin businesses. Acquisitions boost ManpowerGroup's diverse portfolio and support its top-line growth. The company has been consistently rewarding its shareholders through dividend payments and share buybacks. On the flip side, challenging market environment in Europe continues to weigh on ManpowerGroup's top line. Rising expenses due to investments in digital and restructuring activities is weighing on the company's bottom line. Staffing margin pressure is also likely to weigh on ManpowerGroup's Southern Europe segment. Partly due to these negatives, shares of ManpowerGroup have declined in the past year.

Overview

ManpowerGroup is one of the leading providers of innovative workforce solutions and services across the globe. The company has a well-established network of 2,500 offices in 75 countries and territories. ManpowerGroup provides its wide range of staffing solutions as well as engagement and consulting services through its four major brands – Manpower (contingent staffing and permanent recruitment), ManpowerGroup Solutions (outsourcing services for large-scale recruiting), Experis (Professional Resourcing and project-based workforce solutions) and Right Management (career transition and organizational consulting services).

The company operates through five reportable segments –

Americas (20% of 2019 revenues): The segment includes United States and Other Americas. The segment had 562 branch and 172 franchise offices. In 2019, nearly 37% of temporary and contract recruitment revenues were earned from placing industrial staff, 23% from placing office staff and 40% from placing professional and technical staff.

Southern Europe (44%): The segment includes France, Italy and Other Southern Europe. As of Dec 31, 2019, the segment had 1,126 branch offices and 49 franchise offices. In 2019, almost 73% of revenues were earned from placing industrial staff, 14% from placing office staff and 13% from placing professional and technical staff.

Northern Europe (22%): The company's largest operations in Northern Europe are in the United Kingdom, Germany, the Nordics and the Netherlands. Asia Pacific & Middle East (APME) (13%): With 137 branch offices in the region, the company has operations in Japan, Australia, India, Greater China and Korea. In 2019, almost 10% of APME revenues were earned from placing industrial staff, 59% from placing office staff and 31% from placing professional and technical staff.

Right Management (1%): Segmental revenues are earned from outplacement and talent management services.

Reasons To Buy:

- ▲ ManpowerGroup is trying to mitigate its ongoing revenue softness through strong pricing discipline and cost control. It has witnessed strong growth in the solutions business, especially in Managed Service Provider (MSP) and Recruitment Process Outsourcing (RPO) solutions, through 2019. Notably, RPO and MSP have been the highest margin businesses for ManpowerGroup.
 - ▲ In a bid to increase productivity and efficiency, the company is making significant investments in technology. It is implementing front office systems, cloud-based and mobile applications, and making enhancements to its global technology infrastructure across several markets. The company is also investing in digitalization of its workforce solutions.
 - ▲ Acquisitions will continue to support ManpowerGroup's top-line growth. The company has been consistently acquiring and investing in companies globally. These include acquisition of Switzerland Manpower franchise (in April 2019), LearnUp (a recruitment company acquired in 2017), CIBER, Inc (a global information technology consulting, services and outsourcing company bought in 2016) and others purchased earlier. With the buyout of different companies, ManpowerGroup continues to strengthen its diverse portfolio.
 - ▲ Commitment to shareholder returns makes ManpowerGroup a reliable way for investors to compound wealth over long term. The company returned $203 million, $500.7 million and $203.9 million through share repurchases and made dividend payments of $129.3 million, $127.3 million and $123.7 million, respectively in 2019, 2018 and 2017. These initiatives not only instill investors' confidence but also positively impact earnings per share.
 - ▲ ManpowerGroup's total debt at the end of second-quarter 2020 was $1.36 billion, flat sequentially. The company's cash and cash equivalent balance of $1.44 billion at the end of the quarter was above this debt level, underscoring that it has enough cash to meet obligations and is at a low risk of insolvency in these testing times.

ManpowerGroup's top-line is benefiting from acquisitions, strong pricing discipline and cost control.

Reasons To Sell:

- ▼ Southern Europe, the company's largest reportable segment (44% of 2019 revenues), is likely to continue to experience staffing margin pressure, resulting from the coronavirus pandemic, loss of competitiveness, employment (CICE) subsidy and impact of the strikes in France. Coronavirus-related work restrictions in the company's largest markets are expected to continue weighing on revenues that declined 8.4% year over year in the last reported quarter. This may weigh on its share price, which has declined 23.5% year to date.
- ▼ ManpowerGroup operates in 75 countries and territories around the world. Its vast international presence exposes it to the risks associated with foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations. Evidently, loss related to foreign exchange movements came in at $6.7 million in 2019. The company earned nearly 88% of revenues from outside the United States in 2019, the majority of which were generated in Europe.
- ▼ Escalation in costs due to investments in digital and restructuring activities may decelerate ManpowerGroup's bottom-line growth. Challenging market environment in Europe has been weighing on the company's top line. Also, penetration rates will be lower in emerging markets in the near to mid-term as these take time to mature.

Staffing margin pressure and cost escalation weigh on ManpowerGroup's bottom-line.

Zacks Stock Rating System

We offer two rating systems that take into account investors' holding horizons: Zacks Rank and Zacks Recommendation. Each provides valuable insights into the future profitability of the stock and can be used separately or in combination with each other depending on your investment style.

Zacks Recommendation

The Zacks Recommendation aims to predict performance over the next 6 to 12 months. The foundation for the quantitatively determined Zacks Recommendation is trends in the company's estimate revisions and earnings outlook. The Zacks Recommendation is broken down into 3 Levels; Outperform, Neutral and Underperform. Unlike many Wall Street firms, we have an excellent balance between the number of Outperform and Neutral recommendations. Our team of 70 analysts are fully versed in the benefits of earnings estimate revisions and how that is harnessed through the Zacks quantitative rating system. But we have given our analysts the ability to override the Zacks Recommendation for the 1200 stocks that they follow. The reason for the analyst over-rides is that there are often factors such as valuation, industry conditions and management effectiveness that a trained investment professional can spot better than a quantitative model.

Zacks Rank

The Zacks Rank is our short-term rating system that is most effective over the one- to three-month holding horizon. The underlying driver for the quantitatively-determined Zacks Rank is the same as the Zacks Recommendation, and reflects trends in earnings estimate revisions.

Zacks Style Scores

The Zacks Style Score is as a complementary indicator to the Zacks rating system, giving investors a way to focus on the highest rated stocks that best fit their own stock picking preferences.

Academic research has proven that stocks with the best Value, Growth and Momentum characteristics outperform the market. The Zacks Style Scores rate stocks on each of these individual styles and assigns a rating of A, B, C, D and F. We also produce the VGM Score (V for Value, G for Growth and M for Momentum), which combines the weighted average of the individual Style Scores into one score. This is perfectly suited for those who want their stocks to have the best scores across the board.

Value Score	A
Growth Score	A
Momentum Score	C
VGM Score	A

As an investor, you want to buy stocks with the highest probability of success. That means buying stocks with a Zacks Recommendation of Outperform, which also has a Style Score of an A or a B.
